Interdisciplinary Ideas for the K–5 Classroom

Saturday, April 14, 2012
1:00–4:30 p.m.

The J. Paul Getty Museum at the Getty Center
Museum Lecture Hall
1200 Getty Center Drive
Los Angeles, CA 90049

Connect art to your students’ lives! Learn how to enliven your language-arts curricula with visual art.

Art & Language Arts is a one-year professional development program that helps teachers create arts-integrated, interdisciplinary teaching strategies based on the Getty Museum’s collection. At this free event you will receive over thirty lesson plans from teachers graduating from the program, view student work, and get inspired!

1:00 p.m. Coffee and registration
1:30 p.m. Presentations and remarks
- Internationally acclaimed artist Kim Abeles shares insights about her work and the impact of art on her life
- Teachers in the Art & Language Arts program showcase their arts-integrated lesson plans

3:15 p.m. Refreshments and lesson exchange
- Receive new lesson ideas written by K–5 teachers
- View student work inspired by the Museum’s collection

To register, please call (310) 440-7322. Space is limited and available on a first-come, first-served basis. For more information about the Art & Language Arts program, visit http://www.getty.edu/education.