Cultural Objects

Name Authority [®]

CONA, the Cultural Objects Name Authority[®], is a new resource available for contributions. CONA compiles titles, creator attributions, depicted subjects, physical characteristics, and other metadata about works of art, architecture, and cultural heritage, both extant and historical. Sources include museum collections, special collections, archives, libraries, scholarly research, conservation projects, and documentation projects. CONA is linked to AAT, TGN, ULAN, and IA.

- CONA is multilingual; The scope is global; ranges from prehistory to the present
 - CONA includes current and historical relationships (e.g., folios for a lost manuscript)
 - CONA is compliant with Categories for the Description of Works of Art (CDWA) and Cataloging Cultural Objects (CCO)
 - CONA is a thesaurus, compliant with international standards for thesaurus construction
 - CONA contains hierarchical (polyhierarchical), equivalence, & associative relationships
 - CONA grows through contributions from art repositories, expert users, and scholars
 - Minimum data includes title or name, work type, creator, creation date, materials, dimensions, subject, geographic location (for architecture) or repository and repository ID
 - Contributors and sources are cited
 - For more information and current status, see the following:
 - www.getty.edu/research/tools/vocabularies/cona_intro.pdf
 - www.getty.edu/research/tools/vocabularies/guidelines/index.html#cona
 - Consult CONA and the Getty vocabularies free of charge on the Getty Web site
 - It is anticipated that CONA will be released as Linked Open Data (LOD)
- AAT, TGN, and ULAN are available as Linked Open Data (LOD) under ODC-BY 1.0 license
