

Teaching Teachers
And Reaching Students
For 10 Years

You and your family are invited to attend the Getty Museum's

Art & Language Arts Program for K-5 Teachers 10th Anniversary

Saturday, August 15, 2009, 1:00 p.m. – 4:00 p.m.

The Getty Center
1200 Getty Center Drive, Los Angeles, California 90049

Celebrate 10 years of expressive student artwork and interdisciplinary teaching at the Getty Center with FREE storytelling, student performances, and activities for the whole family!

The event begins in the Harold M. Williams Auditorium

- 1:00 p.m. – 1:45 p.m. Storytelling Performance
Experience art with storyteller and musician Asha's Baba as he takes you on a journey up, over, around, and through a modern sculpture.
- 1:45 p.m. – 3:00 p.m. Student Showcase
Enjoy students reading and performing works inspired by the Getty Museum's collection.
Family Activities
Participate in a variety of fun activities for families. Create a hands-on art project in Family Art Lab, participate in activities in the galleries in Art Adventures, and more!
- 3:00 p.m. – 4:00 p.m. Lesson Fair
View student works that were produced from inspiring lessons.
Reception
Celebrate ALA's 10-Year Anniversary with dessert and lemonade!

Stay at the Getty Center after 4 p.m. to enjoy Garden Concerts for Kids with your family.

In the Getty Museum's Art & Language Arts (ALA) program, teachers learn strategies for inspiring their students with works of art in the Getty's collections.

View Ten Years of Elementary Art Inspiration, a display of artwork created by students of Art & Language Arts alumni.

Register for the event by calling (310) 440-7300. First come, first served. Learn more about the Art & Language Arts program at www.getty.edu.
