

Mission Statement of Our Lord in the Attic Museum

To keep the religious and cultural heritage of Catholic Amsterdam in the 17th and subsequent centuries alive through the active management of the building on Oudezijds Voorburgwal 40 / Heintje Hoekssteeg 28, in particular the church in the attic and the accompanying collection of art and other objects.

To provide a welcoming and inspirational meeting place where visitors can learn about the values for which the museum stands and where visitors can share their experiences and knowledge.

