

homeschool day at the getty

Bring your family to the Getty Center on June 30 any time from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. and learn about the Getty Museum's free school programs, including information on guided and self-guided tours, Teacher Orientation Workshops, online resources, and more. Come by our Homeschool Day table in the Museum Entrance Hall, meet our Education Specialist and enter a drawing to win a Getty family picnic package.

Bring this ad with you to the Getty Center or visit Getty.edu/education to print out a coupon to receive free parking during Homeschool Day. Admission to the Getty is always FREE.

For more information about the Getty and its school programs visit getty.edu or call 310.440.7300.

The Getty's school programs and materials address California State Content Standards in visual art, history-social science, and language arts and can be adapted to any curricular need
