Biographical / Historical Note

---

In 1974, the J. Paul Getty Museum began assembling a "photo library" by consolidating the visual resources of each existing curatorial department. By the early 1980s, the Photo Archive was actively acquiring large collections of photographs from commercial and private sources and scholars' archives that contained a photographic component. In 1983, the nearly one million photographs of the Photo Archive were incorporated into the Research Institute's Special Collections and renamed the Photo Study Collection.

Scope and Content of Collection

---

Complementing the repository's strong photo holdings of old master paintings from the Low Countries, this collection of photographs covers Belgian paintings and drawings of the 19th century assembled by the Getty Research Institute. Among the approximately 230 artists represented are Henri de Braekeleer, James Ensor, Charles-Henri-Joseph Leickert, and Alfred Stevens.

The collection contains material from numerous sources, including the archives of scholars (for instance, Jacques Foucart, Hans Hildebrandt, J.G. van Gelder), restorers, and art dealers. Among the latter, Douwes Fine Art Gallery and Duits contributed photographs and auction clippings, and images from P. de Boer and the Heim Gallery are present as well. The commercial sources of copy prints include Bo#hm, Bulloz, and Photographie Giraudon. Also included are photographs from auction houses (chiefly Christie's and Sotheby's) and museums, including the Muse#e d'Ixelles, the Victoria and Albert Museum, the Museum of Fine Arts, Boston, the Cleveland Museum of Art, the Metropolitan Museum of Art, the national galleries in London and Washington, D.C., and the Muse#e du Louvre.
